

The world leader in water and rope rescue education since 1979

Tower Rescue

Tower Rescue for the Rescue Professional

This course is designed to prepare emergency responders to conduct rescues in a tower environment. Topics considered include basic and specialized equipment, ropes and rigging, safety considerations, scene management and organizations, simple pickoff in a tower environment, lowering, extrication of entangled workers, team based rescue and litter management in a tower environment.

Prerequisite: Technical Rope Rescue: Technician Level.

Course Length: 3 days

Tower Safety and Rescue for the Tower Worker

Tower Safety and Rescue for the Tower Worker is designed to prepare individuals familiar with tower operations to perform rescues for themselves and their coworkers in an emergency. Topics include basic and specialized equipment, ropes and rigging, safety considerations, scene management and organizations, simple lowering of injured workers, belaying lowering and raising systems and simple rappels in a tower environment.

Prerequisite: Tower work experience

Course length: 3 days

For more information on this or another course, call 1-800-457-3728 or visit us online at www.rescue3.com

